MANDATORY INBOUND TRAVEL INSURANCE FOR FOREIGNERS ENTERING ZANZIBAR

Dear Travel Partner,

Please be informed that effective 1st October 2024, it is now mandatory for all passengers traveling to Zanzibar to have Inbound Travel Insurance. This insurance provides essential coverage for unexpected medical expenses, repatriation, personal accidents, baggage delays, and other travel-related incidents.

Key Details:

- Cost:
 - USD 44 for passengers aged 18 and above.
 - USD 22 for children up to 17 years old.
 - Infants (0-2 years) will be covered under their parent's or guardian's policy.
 - Groups of 10 or more are eligible for a 10% discount
- Coverage: Begins upon arrival in Zanzibar and lasts up to 92 days
- Where to Purchase: Passengers must purchase the policy through the official website www.visitzanzibar.go.tz
- Documentation: Passengers will receive their policy documents via email and should be advised to carry them during their trip.
- Maximum Number of Travel Days:
 - The Inbound Travel Insurance policy covers individual trips of up to 92 days per trip.
 - Passengers can make unlimited trips within the policy period, provided each trip does not exceed the maximum of 92 days.
- Guests with Personal Insurance:
 - Please note that personal insurance policies will not be accepted in place of the Mandatory Inbound Travel Insurance.
 - The Inbound Travel Insurance is non-renewable. If a passenger remains in Zanzibar beyond 92 days, they must purchase a new policy to extend their coverage
